

Mailing No. 1 will be posted/emailed after March 16, 2009 only to those who have returned the 'Expression of Interest Form' and $10.

Mailing No. 1 will provide the following:

- A brief biography of each tutor attending the Ballarat Quilting Weekend.
- A detailed description of each class being offered, including skill level needed.
- A list of class requirements.
- Information about the other activities being organised for BQW.
- Costs for the various combinations of attendance for BQW.
- Application form for your selection of class preferences, accommodation and other weekend activities.
- No money for the actual weekend should be sent until you make your class selection in March.
- Due to the popularity of the weekend, applications should be completed ASAP after receiving Mailing No. 1.

Only applications posted to the address below will be accepted.

A ballot will be conducted after the closing date.

Mailing No. 2 will be posted in May to those who have been successful with their application to attend all or part of 'BQW'

Mailing No. 2 will provide the following:

- Your class allocation.
- Detailed program of the weekend.
- A map showing you how to get to Ballarat Lodge.
